for

Earning Two Undergraduate Degrees Simultaneously in the College of Agricultural & Life Sciences and the School of Education, UW-Madison

POLICY: Admission to each degree program shall be based on the admission criteria for each college/school program. The degree programs must differ sufficiently. The degree from each college/school will be awarded upon completion of both degrees. At least 30 additional degree credits (and all course and grade-point requirements) are required for a second degree; for example, if one degree requires 124 credits, a minimum of 154 credits will be required. Some degrees require more than 124 degree credits.

INTERNAL PROCEDURES: This student must have been admitted previously to a degree program in one of the schools/colleges. (Note that admission to most School of Education programs is limited and competitive.) The "second" school/college must take an action permitting the dual degree by (1) choosing "Add" in the transfer section of the action form, (2) indicating effective term, student program, and student plan in the transfer section, and (3) entering the action text, "May work toward two degrees, one in CALS and one in Education."
