

2010 Great Lakes Regional Conference
Sponsored by the Wisconsin Council for the Social Studies and International Education Conference

“Today’s Student, Tomorrow’s Global Citizen”

Conference Schedule

Sunday, March 14

- 6:00-7:30 WCSS, IEC, and FIE Reception for Board Members and Guests
- 7:30-9:00 Brazil - From Amazon’s Indigenous Tribes to the Glitter of the World Stage - Experience a Brazilian cultural evening through dance (samba), music (capoiera), sport (futbol), film (documentary), and a discussion of a wide range of issues ranging from geography and environment to politics and economy. Share the evening with colleagues and find out about Brazil’s indigenous tribes and the impact of the 2016 Olympics.

Monday, March 15

- 7:30-5:30 Conference Registration
- 7:30-8:45 Breakfast
- 8:00-8:45 Plenary Session Speaker - Patty Loew, UW Professor, TV host of “In Wisconsin,” producer PBS film “Way of the Warrior,” and author of Indian Nations of Wisconsin and the children’s version, Native People of Wisconsin

“Seeing Red:
Native Americans and Cultural Insensitivity in the Classroom”

- 8:55-9:55 Breakout Session #1
- 10:05-11:05 Grand Opening of the Exhibit Hall
- 11:15-12:15 Breakout Session #2
- 12:15-1:45 Luncheon and Keynote Speaker – Craig Kielburger, Founder of “Free The Children,” Co-Founder of Me to We, Author of the NY Times bestseller, Me to We, Syndicated Columnist, and Winner of Roosevelt Freedom Medal and the Order of Canada

“The World Needs Your Kid:
How to Nurture Children Who Care and Contribute”

Continued on Next Page

- 1:45-2:15 Exhibit Hall & Book Signing by Kielburger
- 2:15-3:15 Breakout Session #3
- 3:25-4:25 Breakout Session #4
- 4:30-6:30 Wine and Cheese Social in the Exhibit Hall
Loew and Kielburger Book Signings
- 7:30-9:30 Film & Discussion with Patty Loew, TV host, author and producer and showing of the WPT/PBS film, “Way of the Warrior” followed by a discussion with the Patty Loew

Tuesday, March 16

- 7:00–8:00 Continental Breakfast in Foyer
- 7:30-12:00 Conference Registration
- 8:00-9:00 Breakout Session #5
- 9:10-10:10 Breakout Session #6
- 10:10-11:05 Exhibit Hall
- 11:05-12:05 Breakout Session #7
- 12:15-2:00 Luncheon and Keynote Speaker - Robert Norrell, University of Tennessee Professor, author of Kennedy Book Award Winner, Up from History (Booker T. Washington), and Reaping the Whirlwind (Civil Rights Movement in Tuskegee)

“Up from History: Rehabilitating Booker T. Washington's Reputation”

- 2:10 Book Signing by Norrell
- 2:15-3:00 Session for Participants Seeking Conference Graduate Credit